TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESSMAN JOE KILGORE (to Congressman Kilgore)

LBJ: Hello Joe...I wanted to drop you a little note but I haven't had time... I'm been on this telephone all day and I've had folks coming in...had the Prime Minister of Denmark...had the Prince of Cambodia...gave him hell..he told us he didn't want us over and I said..we don't want any friends that don't want us....laughter..it just means less foreign aid funds ...with that attitude...

JK He understands that, doesn't he?

LBJ Yes, he did. He said he didn't know much about this..I said I'd have to talk to him about it later...laughter. O.K. pardner, you check with James if you can and come over..there's not going to be anybody there but Homer.

JK 7:30? Allright..come..just come over to your house.

LBJ And you'd better ask somebody at the White House to call..tell them that you're coming. Call Walter's office...Juanita Roberts...one or the other. Tell them to tell Secret Service and that you're coming to dinner..what kind of car you've got so they'll let you in.

JK All right. We'll do that. Thank you.

LBJ OK
