Dear Larrie,

Sorry that I have not written sooner or more often, though you will find that I have not been completely idle. I received your last letter two days ago and was glad to hear that everything is still going along well. As for myself I just returned from two and a half weeks in Paris and I might add that every thing also went well over there. I have cultivated a lasting friendship with a young woman of about 30 yrs who happens to be the export manager for Satta, one of the largest importers of several types of business machines from America, with distribution and contacts throughout Europe and Africa.

This may be the chance we need in order to gain friends and do business internationally. She and I discussed the possibility of setting up our own Import-Export business in the U.S. and I am glad to say that she is willing to leave her present employ and come to America (under my sponsorship) to help set up a new business in which, due to her experience, she will hold a key position. For the moment Larrie just consider this food for thought.

I have discussed Dallas with Bill and unfortunately he cannot come right away due to the fact that we are on a financial see-saw and he has his family to support in the immediate future, thoughts soon as we have developed to the point where we can offer him a little security and a lot of promise he will come with bells on. Further, I have spoken with Norman on this subject and he gives no answer at all and in fact tries to convey the impression that he is disinterested. I don't buy it. Norman left here yesterday to return to the states, and he claims to a job in San-Juan Puerto Rico, I am inclined to think that he may go to Dallas and try to shoot me down, if he does drop by to "say hello" be on guard because he appears to be as untrustworthy and undependable as ever, except of course where Norman F Baker is concerned.

I am leaving Munich on Friday, 26 July and expect to arrive in the States on or about August 4th or 5th. It will probably take me about 2-3 weeks to clear up my business around New York including my marital problems so I probably will not arrive in Dallas until late August. I may be asking for a lot at the moment but here is what I want you to try and do; Try to make room ~~for~~ for me full time in AMBUS or in YAF because I feel that if I have to start selling cars and the like it will do nothing but take away from whatever contributions I can make to CUSA in an organizational or promotional sense. I want to put my talent where they will do the most good, either in expanding AMBUS or as a political "Rabble-Rouser" so to speak. This is all for now, write soon and let me know where I fit in. Best regards to Larry, Betty and Barbara.

Bernie
