

are you getting sea sick are you still on a weather ship. Oh by the way Daddy how is the kid I don't know whether it a boy or girl so please to inform me of its name. I bet its a girl well on the ship the Marine unit to be used to do more work and large house at home when coming to A.P. will change and just then as if to be used me? Well.

Dear John,
 Well, mother finally send me your address I had asked her when I was in Ft. I just hope this address don't take too long to reach you, it just doesn't seem to be all there, if you know what I mean. But that all did not matter, said Marge was going to have my mother today, well congratulations, you seem to be raising a mighty nice family.
 What are you hoping for this time a boy or girl?
 I believe John D. is about 29 years old now, do you think Marge doing? Ok. I hope.

This is pretty good duty over here, besides for the log work, the bad show, the terrible weather, ha! ha! All kidding aside it really isn't too bad. About the only thing I had about coming over here was the heat side. Boy, I sure did get sick, we spent 17 days coming over and I think I spent 10 days sick.

I'm working as a hydraulics man on a matter of fact men since I went to Miami when I left New York. I really have heard a lot about hydraulics, I hope to be able to continue after I get over. I have only 12 hours left to do. I'm sure looking forward the day I get out of this. But I guess are going to stay in the Coast Guard, huh? What is your rate now, Chief?

I have pulled my duty yet in duty except about 5rs. and what I've seen heard it not mad what. I go on.

1/2 guard duty the 15th of this month. and when I get off I'm going to Japan for my first rest leave.
Well, I have you out of things to say so please answer this letter when next you can and give my best to Mom and John Jr.
