Files of the Dallas Office reflect BILLY RAY WILSON, aka Billy Roy Appleton, was declared delinquent by an Austin, Texas, Selective Service Board on June 30, 1950, for failure to keep his local board informed of his current address, failure to report for physical examination, and failure to report for induction. WILSON was interviewed by SAs EUGENE F. HENNINGSON and JOSEPH L. SCOTT at Fort Worth, Texas, on November 12, 1950, concerning his delinquencies. At that time, he furnished the name of TOM MCKENNA, 623 N. Rosemount, Dallas, Texas, as a person through whom he could be located. WILSON identified himself as a producer of stage shows and as a homosexual. The file reflects he was subsequently rejected for military service, the delinquencies were removed, and prosecution was declined.

Files of the Dallas Office reflect that on November 13, 1963, GRIFF O'NEIL, Apartment 111, 216 E. Cooper, Arlington, Texas, telephone CR 4-2403, advised SA JOSEPH L. SCOTT he was a professional bacon twirling teacher and contact judge at the time enrolled as a student at Arlington State College. O'NEIL reported at the time, a man unknown person had been using his name and names of other bacon twirlers to solicit funds from acquaintances of the persons whose names he was using by long distance telephone. The unknown person was subsequently identified and admitted using the name of O'NEIL and others in connection with fraud by wire violations. This person identified himself as a homosexual and alleged that a number of individuals whose names he had used were also homosexuals. He did not specifically name O'NEIL or any of the other persons whose names he admitted using.

Mrs. JESSE CALDWELL, Auditor's Office, Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, Texas, advised JACK RUBY, RALPH PAUL, and GEORGE SENAYTOR were not registered at the Adolphus Hotel during November, 1963. BRECK WALL and JOE PETERSON were registered in rooms No. 1980 and No. 1981 and made the following calls:

DATE	PERSON PLACING CALL	NUMBER CALLED

November 23, 1963	BRECK WALL, from room 1980	RIVERSIDE 8-1434

Mrs. CALDWELL advised the hotel does not keep any record of incoming calls and that on all local calls originating from the hotel the time of the call and length of the call are not recorded.

WALL and PETERSON occupied room No. 1703 from December 31, 1962, to February 15, 1963; room No. 1809-10 on February 15, 1963; room No. 1719 on April 17, 1963. They occupied rooms 1980-81 continuously from September 22, 1963, to January 4, 1964.
