and LINA BOYTLER were then issued Mexican Tourist Documents (TM-14) No. 36696 and No. 36695, respectively, and were allowed to enter Mexico at that time with a temporary immigrant status. According to those records, ARCADY BOYTLER was issued Mexican Certificate of Naturalization No. 2200 on December 16, 1941, by the Mexican Secretary of Foreign Relations. Those records contained no additional pertinent information concerning ARCADY BOYTLER or his wife, LINA GEORGINA DE BOYTLER.

On May 25, 1964, Special Agent Roger C. Warner, in accordance with your instructions, made an inspection of the area abounding the intersection of Zangs and Beckley Streets, Dallas, Texas, and reports as follows:

"Approximately 230 feet southeast on the Zangs - Beckley intersection is the intersection of Eldorado and Neches Streets. Approximately 200 feet southwest of the Zangs - Beckley intersection is the intersection of Eldorado and Ballard Streets.

Eldorado Street intersects with Zangs and Beckley and runs in a northwesterly direction from the intersection.

Ballard Street runs in a northwesterly direction from the intersection with Eldorado Street.

Neches Street runs directly west from its intersection with Eldorado Street. Neither Ballard nor Neches Streets intersect with Zangs. There is a wide driveway running through the lot which separates Eldorado Street from Zangs at the intersection of Neches and Eldorado. This driveway is about 100 feet long and would enable a vehicle to pass from Eldorado to Zangs without proceeding to the legal intersection. Also a person on foot could pass from the intersection of Neches and Eldorado to Zangs by means of this driveway or by a vacant lot and an alley which are in close proximity to the intersection.

OSWALD stated that by reason of such newspaper reports he had received better treatment by the Soviets than he otherwise would have received.
