

Date 12/30/631

Mrs. THELMA MARKS, 3432 Buchanan Street, Gary, Indiana, furnished the following information:

She was formerly THELMA NEELY and once resided in Brooklyn, New York. Her parents moved to Hammond, Indiana, where her father, W. H. NEELY, currently resides. She went back to New York in the summer of 1947 to marry SIDNEY MARKS, now manager of the Cowan Shoe Store, Empire State Building, New York City, New York. They went to Camp Unity near Kingston, New York for two weeks in July or August, 1947, before they were married. She claimed she thought this was a church camp of some sort, but learned on arrival it was a Communist camp.

At the camp was one JACK RUBENSTEIN, nicknamed RUBY. He was about 30-35 years of age, 5'10", stocky build and had dark hair. He showered affection on her, which made SIDNEY jealous. Mrs. MARKS said RUBY's girlfriend was a dancer. He was at the Camp every day of the two week period. She thought perhaps he might be identical with JACK L. RUBY of Dallas, Texas, accused of the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. MARKS said she and her husband are separated, but thought he might know more about RUBENSTEIN and might have his photograph. She recalls they photographed him at the Camp.

After their marriage, SIDNEY MARKS gave up Communist Party affiliations and work on her promise she would accept the Jewish faith. She does not know the identity of the organization in the Communist Party with which her husband was affiliated.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT No. 2864

Date 1/9/64

SIDNEY MARKS was contacted December 31, 1963, at the Cowan Shoe Store, 16 East 44th Street, Manhattan, New York, and he furnished the following information:

He and his wife, THELMA MARKS, attended Camp Unity, Kingston, New York, for two weeks in 1947. He was unable to recall anyone by the name of JACK RUBENSTEIN or JACK RUBY who was at the camp during that two-week period.

He requested that Agents recontact him after about a week in order to afford him an opportunity to attempt to refresh his memory.

1. Date 1/14/63

SIDNEY MARKS was recontacted at the Cowan Shoe Store 16 East 34th Street, Manhattan, New York, by SAs TIMOTHY B. LARGONE and ROBERT J. LAWSON and he furnished the following information:

He had given considerable thought to the possibility that a JACK RUBENSTEIN or a JACK RBY had been at Camp Unity, Kingston, New York, in 1947, at the time MARKS was at this camp. The only individual he could recall who might be JACK RUBENSTEIN was an obnoxious person who became friendly with MARK's wife, THELMA MARKS. He described this individual as a "con artist type", who came from New York City. At the time, MARKS had just married THELMA, but this did not seem to make any difference to this individual and MARKS found it necessary to "straighten out this individual" and point out that MARKS did not appreciate his attentions to Mrs. MARKS.

MARKS was not able to furnish a description of the above individual, but his recollection was that he did not resemble photographs of RUBY which MARKS had observed.
